Plaintiffs,

v.

Case No. 18-cv-80176

CRAIG WRIGHT,

Defendant.

ORDER

It is hereby ORDERED that Plaintiffs provide AlixPartners, LLP (“AlixPartners”) with copies of the forensic images of David Kleiman’s electronic devices (the “Images”) by March 14, 2019. Defendant shall pay for the cost of these copies. AlixPartners may not disclose any part of the Images or anything it learns from the Images unless specifically authorized by this order, further order of the Court, or the written consent of Plaintiffs. AlixPartners, may however, provide defense counsel with reporting of the activity on the devices in terms of things such as deletions, wiping, reformatting, overwriting, file listings, and metadata reporting (including file extensions, file sizes, file types, file dates, and file locations/paths). However, prior to disclosing any file names to defense counsel, AlixPartners will first provide Plaintiff’s counsel with a list of such file names. Plaintiff’s counsel will then have 10 days to assert a claim of privilege over those file names and provide a privilege log within a reasonable amount of time thereafter. If privilege is claimed over any particular file names, AlixPartners may not disclose those names to Defense counsel but may disclose the file names where no privilege is asserted.

To the extent that AlixPartners is able to recover any deleted or overwritten documents or files, it must provide such materials to Plaintiffs' counsel for review. After a reasonable amount of time for review, Plaintiffs' counsel will produce these documents to Defendant's counsel and to the extent any are withheld, will provide a privilege log. AlixPartners will be permitted to provide Defendant's counsel with a count of the number of documents and files recovered.

DONE and ORDERED in Chambers, West Palm Beach, Florida, this ____ day of March 2019.
